

Fr FELIX NKONGOLO IS ORDAINED PRIEST.

On Friday June 20th our confrere was ordained priest by the Rt. Rev. Kieran Conroy bishop of Arundel and Brighton in the chapel of St George's College.

The ordination was a true family celebration bringing together the Josephite community, the college community, family and friends of our African confreres and students from St Anselm's in Cliftonville.

The celebration had a truly African flavour. The bishop gave an excellent homily which was clear and simple. He also explained the different parts of the ordination rite so all who were present were made aware of the symbolic significance of the anointing etc.

After the ceremony there was a meal which gave everyone the opportunity to meet together and share their joy at the ordination of another Josephite priest. Among the guests were the uncles of P. Paulin and P. Georges, both former pupils of St Joseph's Bulongo.
